

Places to Play

Indoor Play Spaces

Tree house at REI (free)

Seattle Public Library Children's area (free)

Train Table at Barnes and Noble - Pacific Place (free)

"House" with video games in children's area in Nordstrom (free)

Soundbridge Musical Instruments (free on Fridays)

Seattle Art Museum adjacent to Taste Restaurant (free)

Belltown Community Center (cost)

Playdate SEA (cost)

Outdoor Play Spaces

Denny Park corner of Denny and Westlake-zipline, climber and open grassy areas

Westlake Park corner of 4th and Pine, climber with fenced play area

Cascade Playground -swings, jungle gym, sandlot

South Lake Union (SLU) Park and Playground

Myrtle Edwards Park- picnicking, beach, bike riding

Donnie Chin Internation Children's Playground

Freeway Park - picknicking

Bell Street Park - weekend activites, check calendar

Waterfront Park - playground coming in 2018!

Splashing Fun

Fountains at SLU just South of the Lake

Wading Pool/Fountain at Seattle Center-NW of the Space Needle

Wading Pool Pier 69 hidden by Port of Seattle headquarters

Wading Pool/fountain Pier 66 behind Anthony's

Museums/Attarctions

Seattle Aquarium - www.seattleaquarium.org

The Children's Museum-Seattle Center - www.thechildrensmuseum.org

Pacific Science Center - www.pacificsciencecenter.org

Olympic Sculpture Park - small indoor play space

Seattle Art Museum - www.seattleartmuseum.org

Mohai - www.mohai.org